

REVOLT AGAINST THE UNILATERAL WORLD – ANTI-COLONIALISM ‘FROM THE RIGHT’. THE PERSPECTIVE OF ALAIN DE BENOIST’S NEW RIGHT

Abstract

The topic of the article is the concept of ‘Right-wing Third-worldism’ by Alain de Benoist. The leader of the New Right movement states that Europe is in fact a (cultural) colony of the United States. He believes that an alliance with the USA is not in Europe’s best interest. He is an advocate of a Europe-Third World alliance. In his view, both Europe and the Third World could benefit from such an agreement, as only their combined potential could enable to end the domination of USA. The text outlines the genesis of the contemporary, American identity, the critique of the unilateral model of globalisation and an alternative model of Europe-Third World relations.
