

DIMENSIONS AND MECHANISMS OF THE INTEGRATION PROCESS OF UKRAINIAN FEMALE MIGRANTS INTO POLISH SOCIETY

Summary

The integration of various groups of immigrants into Polish society, including the participation of Ukrainian migrants in the Polish socio-cultural space, is one of the key issues addressed in the literature, public debates and academic analyses. Theories and research on this subject are nowadays a dynamically developing field of knowledge, which has a direct reference to social practice as well as the creation of integration policies. The paper, apart from discussing the integration process, presents its individual dimensions and mechanisms based on the situation of Ukrainian migrant women living in Poland.
