

Illegal Activities of Public Servants: Modern Realities

Abstract:

The article analyses the problem of illegality in the activities of public servants in Ukraine. It describes the administrative and criminal bases of responsibility of public servants and presents scientists' views on corruption problems and the related issue of legal responsibility. Corruption is shown as a multistructural phenomenon in the activities of public servants.

Keywords: public servant, corruption, responsibility, risk, tort, criminal liability.