

Integration and Integration Politics Related to the Immigrants: the Analysis of the European Union Documents and Polish Law

Abstract:

The article pertains the systematized discussion on immigrant integration problems in the society that have accepted them and at the same time pays attention to obligatory policy of the foreigners' integration both in the European Union and Poland. In the first part of the article law regulations of the European Union's engagement into the field of foreigners' integration and the expertise of the EU to make activities and regulations in that area are presented. The presentation of the most important European Union's law regulations directly or indirectly regarding to the issue of foreigners integration and activities taken by the European Union in that branch constitute the special part of the article. In the last part the integration policy in Poland has been studied in step with the attempt of depicting necessary actions in that area.

Keywords: immigrants, integration, integration policy, European Union, Poland.