

Forming of a System of Values of Persons Made Conditional on Alcohol in the Executory Proceedings Before the Guardianship Court

Abstract

Amongst sources of interferences in functioning of the family he will depend for her of members from alcohol. In the life of the family for her a dysfunction causes this phenomenon. With consequence of it starting judicial proceedings for obliging the person made conditional to the surrender can be for duty of the treatment. Judicial proceedings in this case consist of two stages, that is reconnaissance and implementation proceedings. These matters according to Art. 12 § 1 and of pt 1 USP are involved in Family Divisions. Due to the fact that the family constitutes with social fundamental unit compound of connected persons with marriage bonds and parental the forming of a system of values of persons addicted to alcohol in the executory proceedings has material meaning. It results from the fact that he is having an influence to relations between all members of this social fundamental unit. From these considerations guardianship court in the course of the executory proceedings by way of orders appropriately to arrangements of reconnaissance proceedings, and in it based on the opinion of experts to have an influence on a forming of a system of values of persons addicted to alcohol in the executory proceedings.

Keywords: family, dysfunction, parent, spouse, alcohol dependence.