

BEHIND THE VEILS OF SECRET FOREIGN POLICY. SECRET OPERATIONS OF INTELLIGENCE – AN OUTLINE OF THE PROBLEM

Summary

The tangle of globalization and the information revolution has created a reality, ideal for constructing multi-level strategies of influencing the directions and dynamics for social processes and complaints. Between diplomacy and war area for active foreign policy, more extensive than before emerged. The aim of the article is to discuss synthetic secret intelligence operations in light of existing research, to indicate the current conditions for the use those operations by the state in context of gaining and maintaining an advantage in the arena of action. The thesis prepares a sketch and contributes to the results of research for the purposes of determining the non informal role of intelligence in foreign policy.

Keywords: covert actions, intelligence, foreign policy.

JEL Codes: F5, F52