

Online Campus Quick Facts

By the Numbers*

*2023-2024 Academic Year

Academics

4 Schools

Post University is a private four-year academic institution offering undergraduate and graduate degrees and certificate programs through four schools:

- School of Arts & Sciences
- John P. Burke School of Public Service and Education
- The Malcolm Baldrige School of Business
- American Sentinel College of Nursing & Health Sciences

Opportunities

These schools combine to provide:

- 6 associate degrees
- 20 bachelor's degrees
- 5 undergraduate certificates
- 27 graduate programs, including master's degrees, doctoral degrees, and certificates
- 50+ online learning opportunities
- An Honors Program open to qualified students in any major

Online Education

Offering online education programs since 1996

Career Services

Center for Career and Professional Development

- Available to all students and graduates
- Job search opportunities, networking, digital resumes
- Help with resume writing, interview skill development, and more

Enrollment

Represents the total number of individual students enrolled at any point throughout the 2023-24 Academic Year, with no duplicates.

Scholarships for Affordability & Value

$10,920,000

funds provided through the University in 2023-24 to meet educational costs through grant and scholarship opportunities

23

distinct institutional scholarships provided by Post University

10 tuition reduction programs

- Alumni
- Senior Citizen
- Undergraduate to Graduate
- Corporate Partnership
- Post Eagle (Military)